ANU Legal Workshop

Indigenous Student Scholarship Scheme

Financial support for Indigenous Australian law students

If you’re an Indigenous Australian planning to undertake professional legal training, apply for the ANU Legal Workshop’s Indigenous Student Scholarship. Covering the tuition fees of your ANU Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice (within the ANU Master of Legal Practice), the Indigenous Student Scholarship helps you gain the qualifications you need to be admitted as a lawyer.

Two scholarships are offered each year, with applications closing on 6 November 2015.
